Pastor's Corner

In church we hear a lot about the Great Commission to go and make disciples (Matthew 28:18-20) and the Great Commandment to love God and neighbor (Matthew 22:37-40). But we normally do not hear as much about the Great Invitation to “Come to me [Jesus], all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls” (Matthew 11:28-30). This Great Invitation forms the backbone of our church theme for 2009 and we hope to become much more familiar with all it implies this coming year.

Jesus' invitation is for us to know Him (come to me), serve together with Him (take my yoke), and be His disciples (learn from me). When we answer His invitation we find what kind of incredible person He is (humble and gentle in heart) and what a great benefit we gain (rest for our souls). Whether you have lived many years with Christ, are a new believer just beginning to learn about Jesus, or just checking out what He's all about, we invite you to join us in exploring what it means to Come to Jesus in all the different circumstances and situations you and I will find in life.
